Ref.: Thank you for your support of the World Culture Forum

Dear Amar,

Now that the WCF is in the rear view mirror, allow me to express both personally and on behalf of the Organizing Committee our deep appreciation to you for all your hard work over many months.

It was your untiring energy, creative ideas, impressive contact list, and above all patience that made you an essential member of the OC and ensured its ultimate success despite the rocky road we travelled to get to Bali.

I pledge that the core recommendations of The Bali Promise adopted by WCF will be transmitted at the highest levels in order to influence the post-2015 UN Sustainable Development Goals.

I know we will be in close touch with follow up after the Forum as well as I hope other projects of mutual interest. I hope you will consider me a member of your "knowledge community".

In the meantime I encourage you to build on the momentum generated by the WCF to continue networking and follow up with other the delegates and speakers on issues of passionate concern to you. In that way, the World Cultural Forum in Indonesia will become part of the international agenda shaping key issues in global cultural development, in a similar way that Davos in Switzerland has evolved over the decades to impact global economic policy, and Rio de Janeiro as the venue to discuss world environmental issues.

Warmest Regards,
